Christ, whose glory fills the skies,

Christ, the true, the only light,
Sun of Righteousness, arise,
triumph o'er the shades of night;
Dayspring from on high, be near;
Daystar, in my heart appear.

Dark and cheerless is the morn
unaccompanied by thee;
joyless is the day's return,
till thy mercy's beams I see,
till they inward light impart,
glad my eyes, and warm my heart.

Visit then this soul of mine,
    pierce the gloom of sin and grief;
fill me, radiancy divine,
    scatter all my unbelief;
more and more thyself display,
shining to the perfect day.

Firmly I believe and truly

    God is Three and God is One;
and I next acknowledge duly manhood taken by the Son.

And I trust and hope most fully
    in that manhood crucified;
and each thought and deed unruly
    do to death, as he has died.

Simply to his grace and wholly
    light and life and strength belong,
and I love supremely, solely,
    him the holy, him the strong.

And I hold in veneration,
    for the love of him alone,
Holy Church as his creation,
    and her teachings as his own.

Adoration ay be given,
    with and through the angelic host,
to the God of earth and heaven,
    Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

We sing the praise of him who died,
of him who died upon the cross;
the sinner's hope let men deride,
for this we count the world but loss.

Inscribed upon the cross we see
in shining letters, 'God is love';
he bears our sins upon the tree;
he brings us mercy from above.

The cross! It takes our guilt away:
it holds the fainting spirit up;
it cheers with hope the gloomy day,
and sweetens every bitter cup.

It makes the coward spirit brave,
and nerves the feeble arm for fight;
it takes its terror from the grave,
and gilds the bed of death with light:

The balm of life, the cure of woe,
the measure and the pledge of love,
the sinner's refuge here below,
the angels' theme in heaven above.

Spirituality is about being curious, fresh, and ready for surprises. It is about being ready to laugh and cry, being open to life-giving creative feedback from others that help you to grow and remain young; there is no old age in spirituality. Spirituality is not about remaining stuck in the grove of a repeating record. The only difference between the grove and the grave is the depth.

Epistle

1 Corinthians 1:18-25

The message about the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God. For it is written,

‘I will destroy the wisdom of the wise,
and the discernment of the discerning
I will thwart.’

Where is the one who is wise? Where is the scribe? Where is the debater of this age? Has not God made foolish the wisdom of the world? For since, in the wisdom of God, the world did not know God through wisdom, God decided, through the foolishness of our proclamation, to save those who believe. For Jews demand signs and Greeks desire wisdom, but we proclaim Christ crucified, a stumbling-block to Jews and foolishness to Gentiles, but to those who are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God and the wisdom of God. For God’s foolishness is wiser than human wisdom, and God’s weakness is stronger than human strength. .

This is the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel

John 2:13-22

Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Saint John.

Glory to you, O Lord.

The Passover of the Jews was near, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem. In the temple he found people selling cattle, sheep, and doves, and the money-changers seated at their tables. Making a whip of cords, he drove all of them out of the temple, both the sheep and the cattle. He also poured out the coins of the money-changers and overturned their tables. He told those who were selling the doves, 'Take these things out of here! Stop making my Father's house a market-place!' His disciples remembered that it was written, 'Zeal for your house will consume me.' The Jews then said to him, 'What sign can you show us for doing this?' Jesus answered them, 'Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up.' They then said, 'This temple has been under construction for forty-six years, and will you raise it up in three days?' But he was speaking of the temple of his body. After he was raised from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this; and they believed the scripture and the word that Jesus had spoken. .

At the end the reader will say:

This is the Gospel of the Lord

Praise to you, O Christ.

The Annual Parochial Church Meeting (APCM) ...

will take place on Tuesday, 17 April 2018 - 7 pm for 7.30 pm

At present there are seven PCC vacancies due to retirement, resignation and co-option (this year's retirees and those previously co-opted are eligible to re-stand alongside others).

Please consider standing for election; if you are interested it would be helpful if you could chat with the vicar or Churchwardens by the end of March.

PCC are looking to fill four three-year vacancies, two two-year vacancies and one one-year vacancy.

Deanery Synod members were elected for three years and are in post for a further two years, there is one resignation at this point leaving a vacancy for two years.

Barbara Lamb

We would like to thank everyone for their kind thoughts and messages following the death of Barbara on Saturday, 17 February. She passed away peacefully at Ashminster House, Ashford where she had moved to following the closure of Kingsfield.

Barbara loved being in a community and treasured her involvement with St Mary of Charity where she made many friends when she and John moved to Faversham fourteen years ago.

Her funeral will be at Charing crematorium on Monday, 12 March at 12 noon. You are very welcome to join us and for refreshments afterwards at the International Hotel in Ashford. It would be helpful for catering if you are able to indicate that you will join us.
